Mater Dei High School

1202 W. Edinger
Santa Ana, California

Monarchs have been powerful and benevolent leaders, law-givers, educators, protectors, and builders. Charlemagne, Hammurabi, Isabella, David, and Sequoia, have each in his own way exemplified the essential qualities of true monarchs. For this reason we have chosen each of them to introduce one section of our book.

Charlemagne, the greatest monarch of the Middle Ages, valued education above all else. Students at Mater Dei follow his example by valuing intellectual development and academic achievement.

Hammurabi is most famous for his laws. His wise laws prepared the Babylonians to cope with the cultural advances of their time. In the same way, the administration and faculty of Mater Dei prepare us to live as adult Christians in contemporary society.

Isabella, the queen of Spain, opened new worlds and horizons when she financed the voyage of Columbus to America. Many students at Mater Dei discover new talents and ideas while involved in the activities featured in the Student Life section.

David, the poet-king, was also a great warrior and sportsman. Young athletes at Mater Dei can emulate David's kingly courage and determination and learn from him "to take victory in stride and accept defeat like champions."

Sequoia, a Cherokee Indian chief, was the first to invent an alphabet for his tribe and later run a newspaper for his community. The Orange County businessmen presented in our Advertising section are, like Sequoia, representative leaders of our community.

Real leaders strive to attain the qualities of true monarchs shown by Hammurabi, Isabella, Charlemagne, David, and Sequoia. Most will not completely succeed, but by trying they will develop themselves as full human persons in Christ--the crowning achievement of human existence. This is the type of true monarch the teachers and students of Mater Dei try to form. It is to these young men and women that this book is dedicated-- the Mater Dei "Monarchs".

Cathie

Best of luck to you always

High school is more than the classroom, the laboratory, and the library. It is a place abounding with opportunities for meeting people and developing the talents which contribute to the student's growth as a citizen. Campus life provides so many memories never to be forgotten. For four years it is a way of life, then it is no more.

Mater Dei is people, and the people remain recognizably the same. However, great differences result from living in the environment--the people grow. They grow in knowledge of books, but more important, they grow in an awareness and understanding of their society.

This sixteenth volume of the CROWN presents the story of 1,800 young people--what they do, and how they live.

Student Council met regularly in the library on Monday mornings.

Student Council leadership results in a wide variety of student activities

The Student Council, consisting of the Student body officers, class officers, and club officers, is the most important organization on campus. Under the direction of their moderator, Father Krause, the Council met twice a month during the summer and school months in order to plan the year's activities. This year they sponsored the Summer and Co-Ed dances, participated in CASC meetings, took charge of Student Government Week and ASB and class elections, and hosted a Vietnam Conference. The basic aim of the '67-'68 Council was best expressed by their theme - "Happiness is Unity".

Our Principal, Vice-Principals and Deans

Dear Graduates:

MONARCH suggests royalty. The royalty of Mater Dei is a true type because it comes from the Kingship of Christ and the Queenship of Mary. Our heritage is a royal one based on the fact that we are heirs of heaven through baptism. As Christians we are selected by God Himself to be His people and extend his kingdom in a world that is only a proving ground for Eternity. As the people of God we have a royal heritage which is ours to foster and to give to others. It is in giving to others through leadership and goodness that our true Monarch spirit is made known. Continue to be, and to make known that you are, true Monarchs of Christ.

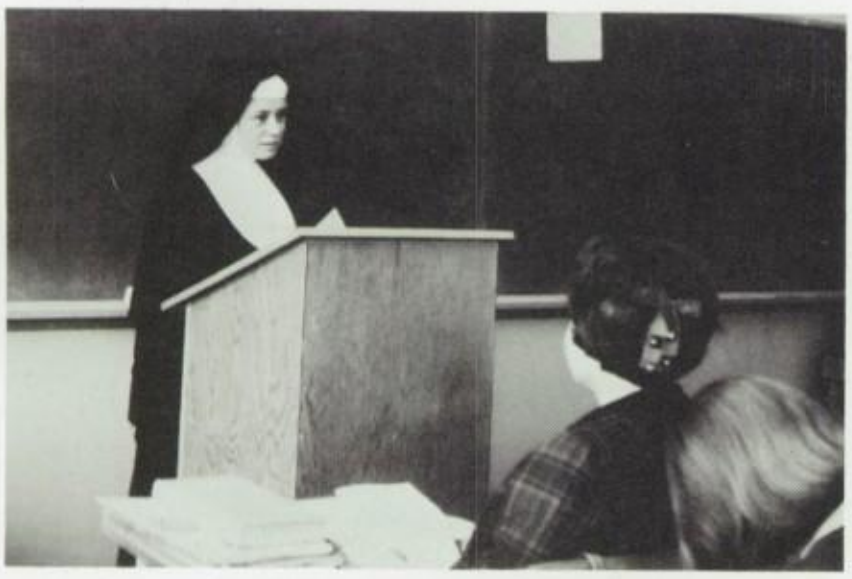
Christian brotherhood in a post-conciliar world.



Sister Joan listens attentively as seniors raise questions about future encounters.

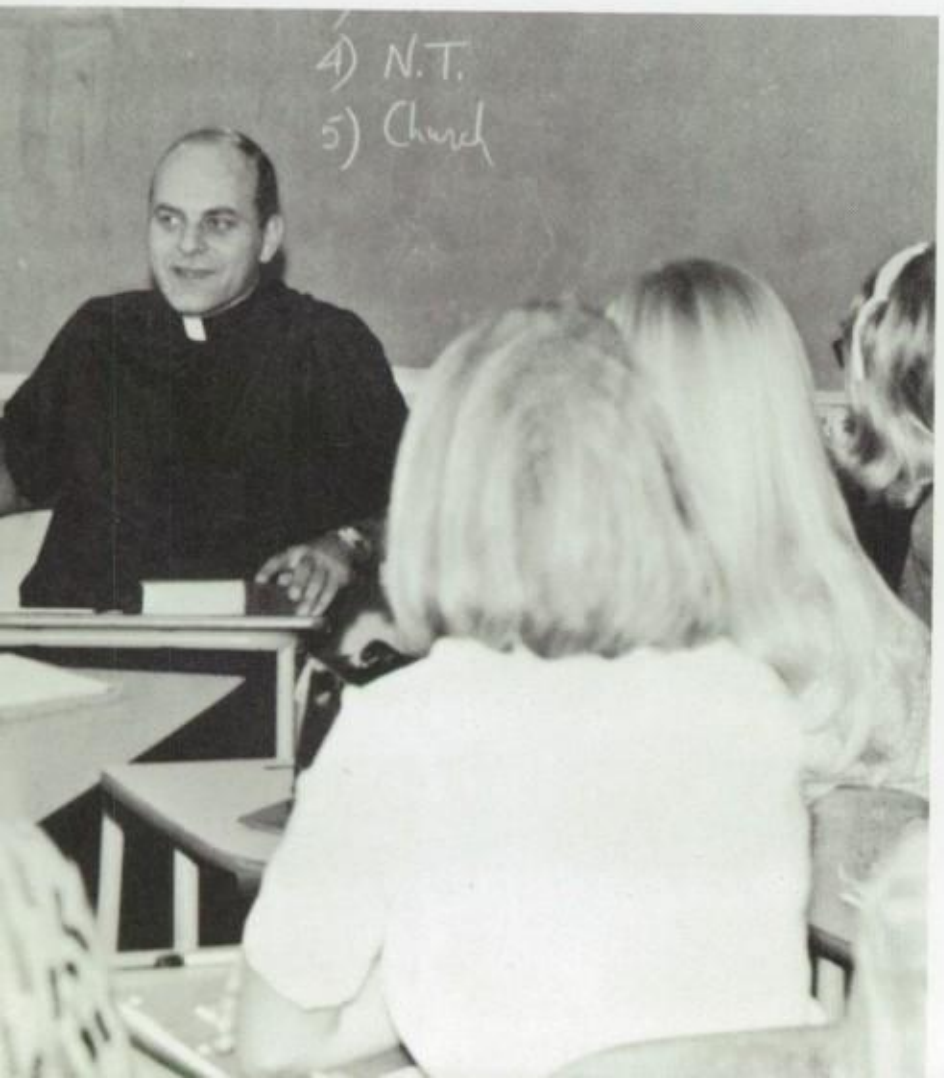
Discussion groups offer an opportunity to openly reslove problems.

The aims of the Religion Department, under the direction of Father John Weaver, are to form in the students an awareness of God and to foster their concern for others in their realization of their brotherhood with all men under the Fatherhood of God.

The Freshmen course, emphasizes God's love for men as revealed in Scripture; the Sophomore course, shows students how man has historically and is now responding to God with worship and service. The Junior course is a study of the mystery of the Church, and the Senior course explores the Christian vocation and contemporary problems of the teenage Christian.

Teaching methods which increase student interest in this department are the use of aids such as movies, filmstrips and records as well as participation in class and small group discussions. On the senior level, there has been frequent combining of boys' and girls' classes to share visual aids and to participate in discussions. On all levels, religious knowledge is translated into action by participation in community works of charity.

The Group Guidance program is conducted by each of the forty-four section teachers under the direction of Father James O'Bryan, Spiritual Director. The goal of this guidance is to aid the student to relate properly to himself, to other persons, to the world and to God.



Facts and opinions are expressed in answer to Father Neeley's questions.

Mastery of the English language and a vast literary back-

The aims of the English Department, under the direction of Mr. Reidel, are to give each student a fundamental proficiency in reading and writing the English language, and to give each student an understanding and appreciation of some of the major authors and works making up our literary tradition. On the Freshman level, the course comprises a study of myths, legends, fables, etc.; on the Sophomore level, a study of basic literary forms; on the Junior level, a survey of American literature; and on the Senior level, a survey of English literature. All four levels include study and practice of composition techniques, as well as necessary review of grammatical function and vocabulary improvement.

This year, in conjunction with the Social Studies Department, a new Humanities Seminar has been introduced. The course consists of a college level study of the humanities, including the history, literature, philosophy, music, and plastic arts relevant to the periods covered.

The program comprises four-year French and Spanish courses. The two-year Latin course aims at teaching skills required for reading, understanding, and appreciating Latin literature, a deeper understanding of the philosophy of the classical and Christian Latin authors, and an awareness of the influence exerted on contemporary civilization by the Latin language and the Greco-Roman heritage.

Students in the Language classes participate in National examinations in Spanish, French, and Latin, and the French students enter the Oratorical Contest at U.C.I.

A new course added this year is the Topics Approach to U.S. History. Team teaching has been introduced as a method of teaching. Teaching is kept up-to-date and interesting by the use of transparencies, overhead projectors and television. The Social Studies Department co-operates with the English Department in the Humanities Seminar by contributing a depth study of Greek and Renaissance political development.

The Business Department, under the guidance of Sister Theresa Mary, C.S.C., trains students in basic vocational skills and gives an understanding of business procedures and concepts for the students' personal use or with a view to a career in the business field. The courses offered are Shorthand I and II; Office Practice and Secretarial Practice; Bookkeeping; Record Keeping; Consumer and Applied Economics.

To stimulate interest in the business classes, the department advocates the use of student involvement in class presentation rather than teacher lectures. Up-to-date equipment such as overhead projectors, the Dictaphone dictating machine, and the Rex - Rotary rexograph machine, are used by the department.

The Speech and Drama Department, under the direction of Mrs. Stevens, encourages interested students to represent Mater Dei in Speech Tournaments and Drama Festivals. The courses offered in the Department are: Freshman Speech-Basic fundamentals in Speech; Sophomore Speech-Intermediate Speech experience; Forensics 1 and 2-Advanced Speech, emphasis placed on tournaments preparation; Drama 1-a Basic drama course; Drama 2- Advanced Drama, emphasis placed on play production.

The Music Department, under the direction of Sister Margarette, D.S.J., offers courses in Chorus and Band. The Girls' Chorus is taught by Sister Margarette, and the Boys' Chorus by Father Krause. These classes aim at developing technical excellence in choral music and provide opportunities for public performances. Instrumental Music consists of the "A" concert Band and a "B" training band. Both of these groups combined, for football games and street parade appearances make up the Monarch Marching Band. The "A" Concert Band this year captured the All-Catholic Championships Trophy. They also won sweepstakes for the second year in a row at the annual Santa Ana Christmas Frolics Parade.

Right Reverend Msgr. Michael Hanlon

The students at Mater Dei owe a special debt of gratitude to Monsignor Hanlon, who died in Los Angeles on May 22, 1967.

As one of our first principals, Monignor began the extensive campus building project and the expanded enrollment that we now enjoy. To him, also, we owe the tradition of devotion to academic excellence and high ideals which exists today.

During the years 1952-1960, when Monsignor served at Mater Dei, the library, gym, and the 300 wing were completed and the Mater Dei football team won the C.I.F. championship for the first time in the AAA Division.

Monsignor Hanlon worked at Pater Noster High School from 1960-1965 and was the director of the Holy Name Society. He was a member of the Archdiocesan Advisory Board of Education.

Monsignor Michael Hanlon lived and died as a servant of God's people.

Service to students and school is the main objective of the National Honor Society

The National Honor Society, an honor club on campus, is a service organization. Their main projects consisted of serving the teachers by providing them with student secretaries and of informing their members of various scholarships and awards. To accomplish this the Society formed two committees.

The service committee, whose members were student secretaries, helped the school in every way possible. The scholarship committee helped the members choose colleges suited to them by bringing campus representatives from various universities. They also informed the students on requirements and opportunities for local scholarships, such as the Los Angeles Times and Bank of America scholarships.

A great deal of thanks is owed to everyone in the National Honor Society for their fine work done in the past year.

Mr. Mack, moderator, tells interested students of his alma mater, The University of Santa Clara.

The Members of the National Honor Society look on as the quarterly meeting progresses.

Jeff Allen, president of the Society, conducts the meeting. Officers of the National Honor Society: Sue Duron, Secretary, Mike Wheeler, Vice-President, Jeff Allen, President, and Jean Libel, Treasurer.

Mary Wysocki and John Heffernan made use of the college catalogues in the C.S.F. office.

C.S.F. members, Mary Ferencz and Cindy Amaranthus, check the scholarship bulletin board for National Merit Qualifying Test Information.

Officers of the C.S.F.: Linda Hill, Program Chairman, Brian Bubnic, President, Barb Genzel, Vice-President, Maggie Knox, Ass't, Secretary, Mary Beaumont, Treasurer, Dori Andorka, Secretary.

The purposes of the C.S.F. is to recognize and foster scholarship among the students. This year, the C.S.F. chose as its theme, "International Understanding Through Communications." Activities to carry out this theme included film showings, lectures by guest speakers, slides, and a special outing to a performance of Shakespeare's play "As You Like It", performed by the Stratford-on-Avon Royal Shakespearean Company in the Music Center. The success-filled year that was enjoyed by the C.S.F. can be attributed to the work and effort of their officers and their moderator, Sister Helen Ann.

Debate and Forensics Club Members listen intently as the club minutes are read.

The Debate and Forensics Club is one of the fastest growing organizations on campus. Beginning four years ago with a membership of twenty, it has now exceeded well over one hundred fifty members. The club has increased not only in membership, but in activities as well. This summer it assumed full responsibility for decorations for the Summer Dance. Another project initiated this year was the adoption of a platoon of Marines in Vietnam. Since late December members have been sending boxes and writing letters to fellow Americans.

The Debate and Forensics club members have proved themselves Monarchs in every sense of the word by bringing home to Mater Dei numerous honors and awards. Among its members this year is the number one ranking humorous interpretation speaker in Orange County and the number one speaker in addition to the many trophy winners at many tournaments.

Several successful tournaments were hosted at Mater Dei during the year, including the annual Seventh and Eighth Grade Speech Tournament during February. This year the club earned special distinction of being chosen to host the NFL District Qualifiers, a coveted honor, since the Debate and Forensics Club has only been in possession of its career for one year.

Officers of the Debate and Forensics Club were: President- Shiela Hannahan, Vice-President- Kathy O'Conner, Treasurer- Mary Bube, Secretary- Martha Brown and Evaluator- Ann Taft.

Under the excellent direction of Father Haigli, the moderator, the Science Club has promoted an active interest in science among its members. During the meetings movies and lectures on scientific topics were presented and guest speakers visited on certain occasions. This year the students particularly enjoyed the talk on the Laser Beam by a representative from Hughes Aircraft. Outings of scientific interest included trips to USC Medical Center, San Onofre, Nuclear Reactor and Cal Tech. The members also availed of admission free lectures at nearby UC Irvine on subjects such as "Symposium on the Origins of Life."

This years Science Club officers were: Larry Litman-President; Paul Clarke-Vice-President; Cathy Nowak-Treasurer and Mary Fredrico-Secretary.

Spanish Club provides broad cultural background

The officers of the Spanish Club watch with interest the slides Sister Patricia Ann took of Spain.

The Spanish Club, under the direction of the moderator Sister Patricia Ann C.S.C. and President Mike Aguirre was very active again this year. This club seeks to provide its members with a broader background of the Spanish culture. Their activities this year included a Mass in honor of Our Lady of Guadalupe, at which hymns in Spanish were sung, and a play in the second semester.

Under the guidance of Fr. Gerlac Horvath, the French Club has continued to give its members a broader background of the French language and culture. This is accomplished through the Club's usual activities which are French oriented. Occasionally guest speakers are presented at meetings, or the members themselves report on different topics with regard to French culture. Also, short French films are shown, which illustrate everyday life in that country.

The thirty members of the German Club have as their aim to learn more about the German language and culture. Through films and individual research they study the customs and characteristics of the German people. Guest speakers on special occasions also contribute to this study.

The officers, (Jim Yunt-President; Rick Grace-Vice-President; Ken Klein-Treasurer; and Tina Kurthy-Secretary) planned several activities for the year such as: Dinner at a German Restaurant, a German Holy Mass in Los Angeles and a German picnic.

Latin Club activities foster an appreciation of the "dead language."

Vice-President Terry O'Shea and moderator Mr. Weatherly, conduct meetings in the absence of President Pete McNulty.

Members of the Latin Club are those students taking third and fourth year Latin. Under the direction of the moderator, Mr. Weatherly, the members come to a better understanding of the language. They also gain insight into the ancient culture of the Romans.

Lights and shadows reflect the pains and pleasures of a brainstorming session.

The staff of Mater Dei's news publication, the Hi-Lighter, under the guidance of Sister Margaret Mary, has worked diligently throughout the year to put out an interesting, informative, and at times controversial newspaper. The newspaper gives coverage to many topics including sports, social events, club activities, scholastic endeavors, and current events, and keeps the students of Mater Dei up-to-date about happenings in Mater Dei and in the world around. The HI-LIGHTER staff also sponsored the annual Talent Show which gave various students an opportunity to display their musical and dramatic talents. This year's winners were: The Jeff Allen Trio, Kathy Nearhood, and Kathy Huston.

This year the CROWN STAFF tried to make our yearbook a reliable record of the year 1967 - 1968. The members spent many hours planning layout, writing copy, headlines, and captions.

Fourteen members of the staff also attended a yearbook seminar at UCLA, October 18, where they listened to lectures on yearbook planning and production, and exchanged ideas with other yearbook staffs.

The Student Relations organization plays an important part at Mater Dei. Juniors and Seniors make up the membership of this club. Under the direction of the moderators, Mr. Dumas and Sister Margaret Mary, and their student leaders, Mike Maggio and Donna Scarmecchia, they are doing a commendable job of maintaining order at various school functions. Their most outstanding contribution is controlling the traffic between classes in the Mater Dei halls. The Girls' Student Relations along with the Girls League, enforce the dress regulations and other rules pertaining to the girls, while the Boys' Student Relations assist Mr. Dumas and Mr. Merino with their discipline policies. Although many students are unappreciative of the Student Relations, they should realize what a vital part their organization plays on the Mater Dei campus.

During the Christmas season the girls collected, boxed, and delivered canned goods for the underprivileged.

Under the direction of Father Lynn and Sister Joseph, the Sodality has really come into its own here at Mater Dei. Senior boys have done an outstanding job as Junior Big Brothers (a group sponsored by the Catholic Big Brothers of Orange County). Each member of the Junior Big Brothers is paired with a younger boy to take on picnics and outings. Sodalists help out at Fairview State Hospital too, where they help the patients attend Mass. Members of this club along with other Seniors volunteer to work with LULAC (League United for Latin American citizens). LULAC helps children that have difficulty with language, reading, and arithmetic. Besides all this, the Sodality sponsors volunteers who drive to Los Angeles every Saturday to assist the dedicated people at the Foundation for the Junior Blind. Here they help the blind children to learn the arts, crafts and sports. By taking such active participation in community projects, the Sodality has generated the spirit of Christian concern to other people.

Junior girls listen to plans for Christmas Drive.

This year the Junior Sodality, led by moderators, Father Neely, Sister Carmelita, and Sister Therese Mary, engaged in many activities.

The Girls Sodality sponsored a Christmas drive for the poor and a canned food drive.

The Boys Sodality was involved in the tutoring program at Atwood. Their monthly meetings were often highlighted by "Insight" films.

Sophomore Sodalists develop spiritually and socially through activities of service.

The involvement of the clubs at Mater Dei was greatly increased this year. The Sophomore Sodalists, under the direction of Father Whelan and Sister Anita, have taken on new responsibilities through new activities. The boys and girls helped in the Christmas clothing drive on the Sophomore level; they assisted in the tutoring of underprivileged children and the Sodalists attended several retreats during Holy Week.

The Legion of Mary meets weekly to honor the Mother of God. They offer their services in apostolic activities out of school; taking Fairview Mental Hospital patients to Mass on Sunday, staging a Christmas play, volunteer work at St. Joseph's Hospital, and tutoring the underprivileged children at Atwood. Some of their activities in school include making posters, making rosaries, collecting books for children, and collecting stamps for the missions.

Another facet of life on campus is the life that springs forth to the rhythm of music. Monarchs displayed "the monarch soul" at a number of dances throughout the year. The G.A.A.'s "Get Acquainted Dance" started the year off. The Sophomore Class then sponsored the "Thanksgiving Dance" with the battle of bands featuring the "Barons" and "Profits." Spreading Christmas cheer, the juniors presented the annual Christmas called "Winter Wonderland". Ending last year was the "Annual Signing Dance" sponsored by the songleaders and cheerleaders, which gave everyone time to sign yearbooks as well as to dance. The summer dance gave students a chance to see each other and discuss the current happenings.

The highlight of the evening was the coronation of Mike Sweeney as King, and Mike Norton as the Prince of the Co-Ed.

Among their achievements are, first place in the Santa Ana Christmas Parade, second place in the Anaheim Halloween Parade, and fifth place in the Hawthorne Band Review. During the football and basketball seasons the band played at all the rallies and games. At home football games, along with the Drill Team, they entertained the crowds during halftime. At away games, the band joined the home team's band in the pre-game ceremonies, and at the basketball games they accompanied our songleaders during time-outs.

The Welcome Committee furthered healthy, competitive relationships with visiting teams.

The Welcome Committee under moderator, John Merino, has gained more prestige on campus this year. With Marcia Rollinson, chairman, the committee displayed Monarch hospitality and sportsmanship. The committee prepared refreshments for visiting football teams and reserved seats for the Band and Drill Team. Some members before the game worked in the reserve ticket section while others were helping the visiting school on its side. The committee also helped in the Monarch student section. Not only was the Welcome Committee active during the football season but it also did much to promote spirit during Basketball season.

Football '67

The 1967 Football Season began with a high-ranked squad with great ability, and one of the finest coaching staffs ever.

Coach Woods displays exuberant enthusiasm at a football game.

The Monarchs started the season with a team that looked excellent and were ranked number one in Southern California before playing any games. The coaching staff this year looked exceptionally well with Coach Woods as head coach, being assisted by Coach Joseph O'Hara, Coach Rudy Estrada, Coach Hayhoe, Coach Marv Bain, and Coach Wigmore. The Co-Captains for this season were Eric Patton and Bob Mendez.

This season marks Coach Woods's second year as head coach. Last year the team, under his direction, advanced to the CIF Semi-Finals with an 11-1-0 record. Over the summer, Coach Woods was selected to coach the Catholic All-Star game and the Orange County All-Star game. Coach Woods graduated from McNeese State College in Louisiana and played varsity football at Tulsa University, where he was offensive guard and defensive middle guard. In 1951 he entered the service and completed his college education in 1959.

The backfield coach and chief scout of the team is Coach Joseph O'Hara. He is also Director of Athletics and the Dean of Studies. Coach is a graduate of UCLA and one of the most hard-working members of the school faculty.

Also to assist Coach Woods is Coach Marvin Bain. He graduated from USC last year, where he played football and was awarded All-Conference. He is a former Mater Dei graduate with many football awards and honors.

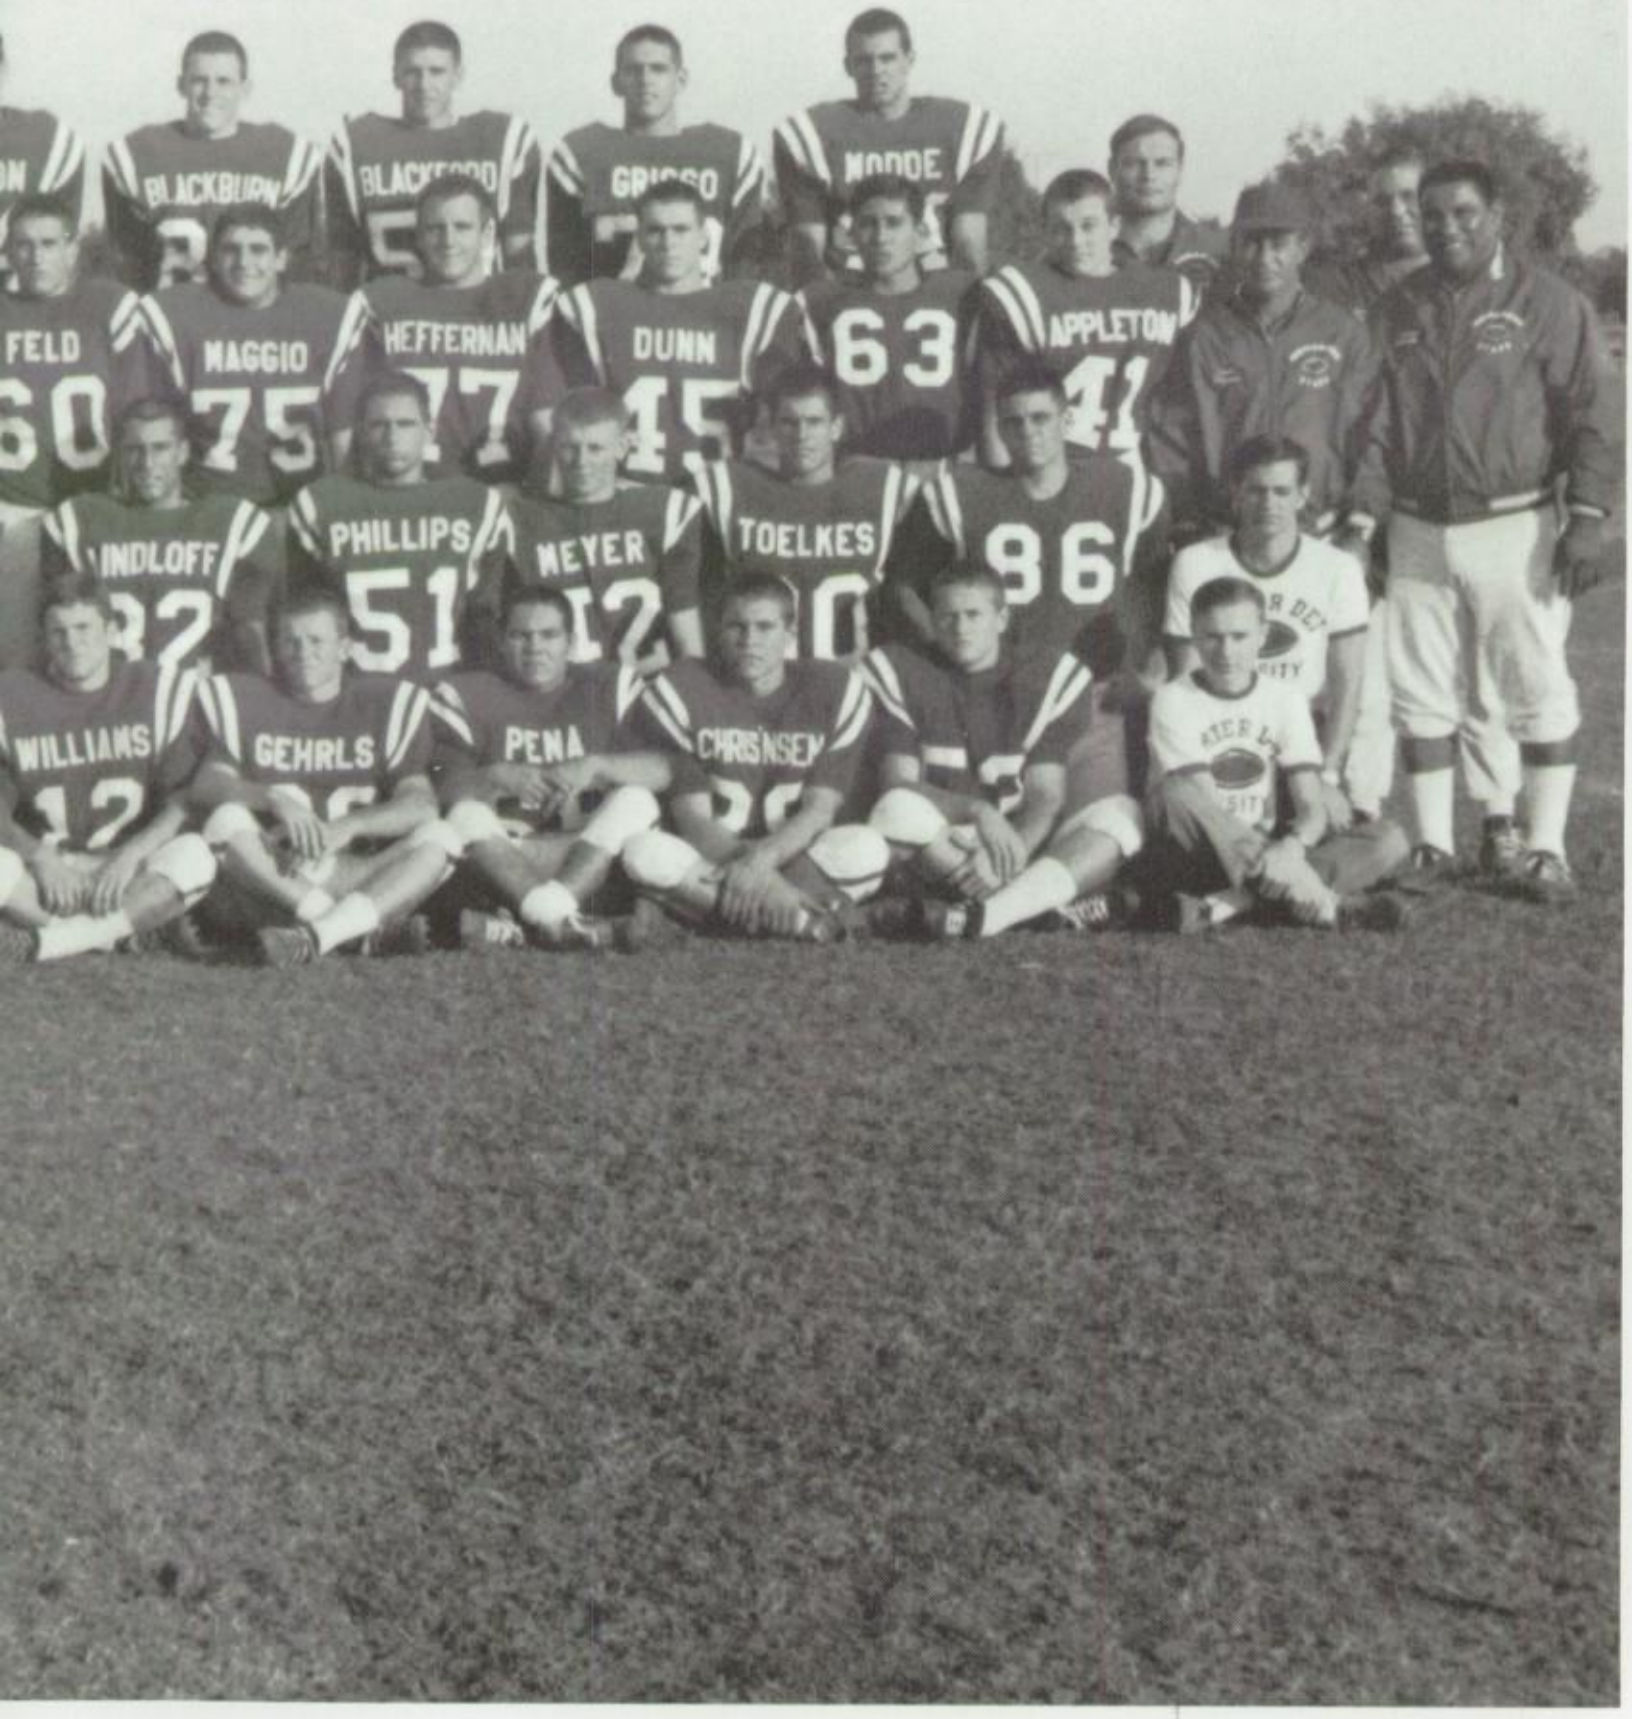
Football Squad



In the preseason games the Monarchs tested their strength and eliminated weak spots.

The first game of the season saw two of the county's greatest football teams play to what was almost a tie. Mater Dei overpowered Santa Ana in total yardage gained, but lost the ball twice on fumbles. The Monarch's only touchdown was made by Tom Gehrls on a four yard carry; the extra point by John Heffernan missed. The Saints tallied in the same quarter, made the extra point, and the score remained 7-6 for the rest of the game.

The Monarchs went into the next game against Loyola broken-hearted. Although the game was a 7-7 tie, Mater Dei again overpowered its opponent in total yardage gained. In a wet and rainy game Mater Dei fumbled twice and lost the ball. The touchdown was made on a 5 yard run in the first quarter and the extra point was good.

The next week, Coach Woods, bewildered and having yet to win a game this season, switched Doug David to starting quarterback. The magic failed to come and Mater Dei lost to Lakewood 6-0. An attempted field goal by John Heffernan missed.

After a three week nightmare the team finally woke up. The Monarchs demolished Long Beach Wilson 20-0 with a style reminicent of past years. Steve Caraway, substituting for Bob Mendez as fullback, did a remarkable job, gaining 60 yards in 13 plays and a touchdown from 10 yards out. Both Kevin Williams and Doug David also scored from the one yard line.

Monarchs begin league play with two victories and a tie

Mater Dei started out league play by massacring St. John Bosco, 34-7. Bob Mendez, out since the first week, returned to score two touchdowns and had a third nullified by a penalty. Eric Patton scored after running 40 yards on a pass interception, and Jim Berg ran 35 yards on another interception to set up a 4 yard touchdown run by Modde.

In the next game, Mater Dei defeated Cantwell 23-0. Bill Anderson scored on a 15 yard pass from Kevin Williams, and John Heffernan remarkably booted a 23 yard field goal. Mark Dunn ran 29 yards up the middle to make it 16 to 0, (see picture below), and Doug David ran 5 yards for the final TD.

The Monarchs failed to score in the following game against Servite, but defense saved the game by preventing a Friar score. The hard-hitting defense forced 8 fumbles from Servite, five of which they lost possession. In one defensive play, Carl Hernandez took out three players before they could get the ball from Friar quarterback, Wekall. Hernandez and Eric Patton were constantly hitting the Servite backs in their own backfield. With a minute left in the game, Servite threatened to score from the 14 yard line. Due to the alertness of Mike Pegan, who made an end-zone interception, (see opposite page), the Friars lost their last chance to score. This game marked the first tie in the Mater Dei-Servite series.

As league play continued, Mater Dei found another hapless opponent in Verbum Dei, crushing that team 47-0. The Monarchs racked up a total of 371 yards, 140 on 10-15 passing of Kevin Williams, Doug David, Bob Williams and Ted Hamilton. Kevin Williams and Doug David each scored twice, Kevin on a 12 yard run and a 9 yard run in the first half. Kevin also completed a 15 yard TD pass to Bill Anderson and Tim O'Conner scored on a two yard run. The fifth TD was a 23 yard pass from David to Tom Gehrls. Later in the third period David ran 15 yards for another touchdown. Mark Dunn scored the final touchdown on a six-yard carry in the fourth period.

With what was to be the last game of the season, St. Paul made a narrow 7-3 win over Mater Dei with a touchdown that came in the last minute of the game. If the Swordsmen had not scored, the 29 yard field goal completed by John Heffernan in the third quarter would have been the winning margin. As it turned out, Mater Dei took third place in the Angelus League with no possibility of entering the CIF Southern Section playoffs. During the past season, the defensive team was one of the best Mater Dei has ever seen, and allowed an average of only 3.8 points per game.

COACHES: Milkerin and Mulchey.

We on the CROWN staff regret that adequate coverage of the 1968 track team cannot be given. This is unavoidable because the yearbook's final deadline is at the very beginning of the track season. We know that with the well abled coaching and the hard working monarch men, this years season is bound to be one of the best.

There has been a resurgence of interest in this sport at Mater Dei. Under the coaches (left), who are in their first year at Mater Dei, we are sure that the monarch track team will be breaking the tape in victory all season. We would like to wish the coaches, the varsity and the "B" & "C" track teams the very best of luck.

It's activities include participation in girl's athletics, sponsorship of sports playdays, and the annual Welcome Dance. In November, GAA sponsored the Mater Dei Eighth Grade Tournament in which all the grade schools in the area participated. It also hosted an intramural Ping Pong Tournament. This year the club also initiated sponsorship of the fashion show. The annual awards banquet, in June, climaxed a very successful year.

Editor's Letter

To the Monarchs:

Every year words are circulated around campus to the effect that THIS CROWN is going to be "bigger and better" than any previous edition. The 1968 CROWN is obviously "bigger" and is in my eyes, as I sincerely hope it is in yours, "better" than any yearbook Mater Dei has had.

We are living in a time of radical change and renewal, both in the Church and in the world as a whole. The CROWN has tried to keep up with this change by presenting you with a book containing an altogether new look, new ideas, and new ways of presenting an accurate account of the year's activities.

Rather than dedicating the book to one particular person, we choose you, the Student Body as a whole, for no one is more deserving of this book than you. In combining our dedication with the theme we thought we could show how the character of the Mater Dei Monarchs is very parallel to the character of some of the world's greatest monarchs.

I could not possibly end this without saying a word of thanks to twenty-two of the greatest Monarchs I know, the CROWN STAFF. Few people realize the amount of time and effort, the headaches and heartaches, that go into the production of a yearbook. These twenty-two people, however, have overlooked all this and have given me an experience I wouldn't trade for anything in the world. Special thanks also go to our artist Linda Hill, and to Jim Doyle, our photographer. These two people, although officially not on the staff, and therefore, not receiving grade credit, devoted long hours to two of the most important parts of the book. Finally, I must thank our moderator, Sister Mary Eamon, who has put up with more than any person should be asked to bear.

And so Monarchs, here it is, your 1968 CROWN! I can only say we tried our best and hope that we met your expectations.

You are such a beautiful deep person you have a well developed sense that very few people have. One can feel your good vibrations. Even though we don't get to talk much I feel very close to you I guess its a contact of souls - our real person. Make sure we see one another but even if we don't our paths have crossed and the results will show forth. Both of us developed through another.

Cathy-
We had a ball
together in drama.
It was great knowing you all these years! Stay cool

Cathy
it was real nice having you in drama(?). Have a real boss time
this summer.
